Ldr is the National College's flagship magazine for leaders of schools, children's centres and children's services. Published quarterly, it is distributed to all 23,000 state schools in England, as well as local authorities, educational organisations, academies and policy-makers. Ldr includes in-depth features on what school leaders and directors of children's services are doing to improve leadership for all children. Every issue contains a wealth of real-life case studies from schools across England as well as leadership news and views. For more information please contact Jenna Swift on tel. 0115 872 3825 or jenna.swift@nationalcollege.org.uk
